the securing of the spiritual comforts of believers in this life is a matter of the highest importance unto the glory of god and their own advantage by the gospel writes the great puritan john owen for god is abundantly willing that all the heirs of promise should receive strong consolation and he has provided ways and means for the communication of it to them and their participation of it is their principal interest in this world and is so esteemed by them but their effectual refreshing enjoyment of these comforts is variously opposed by the power of the remainders of sin in conjunction with other temptations hence notwithstanding their right and title unto them by the gospel they are ofttimes actually destitute of a gracious sense of them and consequently of that relief which they are suited to afford in all their duties trials and afflictions now the root whereon all real comforts do grow whence they spring and arise is true and saving faith the faith of god s elect wherefore they do ordinarily answer unto and hold proportion with the evidences which any have of that faith in themselves at least they cannot be maintained without such evidences wherefore that we may be a little useful unto the establishment or recovery of that consolation which god is so abundantly willing that all the heirs of promise should enjoy i shall inquire what are the principal acts and operations of faith whereby it will evidence its truth and sincerity in the midst of all temptations and storms that may befall believers in this world and i shall insist on such alone as will bear the severest scrutiny by scripture and experience this puritan classic includes the following chapters introduction i how does saving faith approve of this way on what accounts and unto what ends ii the second evidence of the faith of god s elect iii the third evidence of the faith of god s elect iv the fourth evidence of the faith of god s elect rightly understood and rightly communicated the christian faith is one of great joy it is an invitation to god s kingdom where tears are replaced by laughter and longing hearts find their purpose and their home this is the heart of the gospel god s search to reclaim us and love us as his own but have we truly grasped this those of us who have disdained christianity as a religion of bigotry have we repudiated the genuine article or merely demonstrated our own prejudice and ignorance those of us who are christians have we deeply apprehended the mission of jesus and do our ways and character faithfully reflect his beauty from the nature of god to the human condition to the work of jesus to god s coming kingdom and all that lies between how well do we understand the foundational truths of christianity and their implications the faith is a book for our troubled times and for decades to come for christians and non christians alike it is the most important book chuck colson and harold fickett have ever written a thought provoking soul searching and powerful manifesto of the great historical central truths of christianity that have sustained believers through the centuries brought to immediacy with vivid true stories here is what christianity is really about and why it is a religion of hope redemption and beauty the faith of our childhood does not always survive into adulthood what seemed obvious and convincing at an early age looks askew after encounters with suffering illness different religions modern science or dozens of other challenges contemporary life throws in our path despite setbacks and the obvious failures of the church itself many people still long to be part of their faith family using the catholic church s baltimore catechism to structure his exploration father stella candidly and systematically questions various doctrines of the faith from god jesus and the trinity to faith charity heaven and hell using personal reflections on his religious journey to come to new and more meaningful understandings of the christian life of faith each chapter concludes with personal meditations that embolden the reader to deepen and reflect upon their faith stella invites us to accompany him as we move from a faith based on what we are told to one that our souls know to be true stella calls us back to the roots of the christian faith to a faith that is thoughtful all pervasive and based on the recognition that god is mystery written in the same style and spirit as the classic best seller the faith explained by leo trese the faith explained today by joe babendreier offers an explanation of the faith that is easily accessible to modern readers especially students and young adults this christian faith book is in six parts and covers the full spectrum of church teaching over the last 2 000 years these parts include what christians believe how god reveals morality the way christians worship the human person prayer complete with review questions at the end of each chapter and frequent use of writings from sacred scripture the saints spiritual writers and the magisterium this book the faith explained today will help you understand what god revealed through jesus christ as the church has believed it preserved it and treasured it from the beginning the renewal of faith must be a priority for the entire church in our time pope benedict xvi in his writing teaching and speaking pope benedict xvi challenges catholics to understand our faith more fully for one important purpose to draw us closer to christ and thus be inspired and able to share the good news with everyone in our lives be inspired by 21 carefully chosen selections from the holy father s extensive teachings on the faith arranged topically according to the words of the apostles creed the fundamental tenets of our catholic
